

WILLIAM P. DUTTON, M.D.

Email: randandhayerararight@gmail.com

615-373-7925 (home) 615-351-1555 (cell)

Native of Knoxville, Tn. Born July, 1941

Certified by American Board of Urology, 1975 to Present

Bio: May 2016

Education:

University of Tennessee – Knoxville

Undergraduate, Majors in English and Pre-Med Sciences 1959 to 1962

University of Tennessee Medical School - Memphis

Graduating in 1965 with M.D. Degree

Internship:

University of Colorado at Denver 1965 to 1966

Residencies:

UT Memorial Research Center and Hospital, Knoxville – General Surgery 1966 to 1967

UT Institute of Pathology Memphis – Pathology 1967 to 1968

Assistant Shelby County Medical Examiner - 1968

UT Department of Urology, Memphis – Urology Resident 1968 to 1971; Chief Resident 1970 to 1971

Fellowship:

UT Medical School at Memphis – Junior Fellow in Pathology 1964 to 1965

Dornier, Klinikum Grosharden, Munich Germany – Lithotripsy 1985

Additional Training:

Assistant Shelby County, TN Medical Examiner under Dr. Jerry Francisco 1968 to 1969

Mayo Clinic – Percutaneous Nephrostolithotomy 1985

Ethicon Labs, Cincinnati, OH – Laparoscopy 2001

University of Chicago Board Prep Course, 50 hours 2012

Board Certification:

Certified by The American Board of Urology, 1975 to Present

Completed 50 hour University of Chicago Board prep course, 2012

Practice Description:

Urology

Honors, Distinctions & Accomplishments:

Presbyterian Deacon-Elder

President, Nashville City Club 1992

Founding Member, Vanderbilt Ethics Society, Tennessee Foundation for Ethical Health Decisions

Founding Member, Nashville Youth Soccer Association

Past State FIFA sanctioned soccer referee

Commander, Medical Company, Tennessee Air National Guard 119th TAC-CON 1966 to 1967

Tae Kwan Do, Black Belt 1996

Current Honors or Distinctions:

Diplomat of The American Board of Urology
Member, TUA, Nashville Surgical Society, TMA
Colonel, Tennessee State Guard 2006 to Present
Commander, 61st Medical Company, Tennessee State Guard 2008 to Present
General Surgeon, State Guard Association of The United States 2014
Member, Urology Associates (40 Urologists in Nashville, TN)
Adjunct Assistant Professor, Belmont School of Nursing
Chairman of the Board, Summit Medical Center (Tri-Star) 2006 to May 2011

Family:

Dr. Dutton is married to his wife of 50+ years, Darlene. They have 3 grown children and 5 grandchildren. He enjoys traveling with his wife, reading, good food, writing, biking, Tae Kwan Do, fast cars, YOGA, motorcycles, and is active with the Tennessee State Guard.

Special Interests:

Prostate Cancer, Perineal surgery (Radical Prostatectomy), and has done over 400 Perineal prostatectomy and sexual problems .
Dr Dutton is skilled in penile prosthetic surgery for Erectile Dysfunction and sphincter implantation for incontinence, having done some of the earlier penile prostheses and laparoscopic surgeries.
Developed “Performance Initiative” for the Urology Associates Group, targeting Erectile Dysfunction and Hypogonadism.
Weight loss strategies

Current Practice:

Urology Specialists - Cumberland Medical Center located in Crossville, Tennessee.

Previous Practice:

Summit Medical Center in Hermitage, Tennessee